After reviewing the IRS notice CP503, it has come to my attention that you and your Officers or OFFICERS are misaddressing me and are impersonating me. You and your Officers or OFFICERS are attempting to revenue a Usufruct Derivatives that you are not authorized to use. I own both copyright and trademark to the vessels: Brian C. Borchardt and BRIAN C. BORCHARDT. This is fraud, theft and criminal.

Enclosed: CERTIFICATE OF ASSUMED NAME, MANDATORY NOTICE, Deed of Re-Conveyance, Criminal Information Claim and Notice of Liability and my Revocation of Election to Pay Taxes. If you and your Office or OFFICE wish to decline contract with my vessels; I require a Notice of withdrawal.

A copy, facsimile or digital scan of this Notice of Misaddressing and Impersonation shall be as lawfully binding as an original, is true complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and I so declare under Penalty of Perjury under the Public Law of The United States of America (non-incorporated).

If 26 U.S.C section 3402 is the Tax code for 'Tax Withholding' then I would like to bring you attention to the definition of 'Employee' in 26 U.S.C section 3401 (c) says: Employee For purposes of this chapter, the term "employee" includes an officer, employee, or elected official of the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing. The term "employee" also includes an officer of a corporation. - Given this definition in your law, I do not qualify as an employee, because I do not work for the federal government. I ask, do you think, I, a living man, work for or have worked for the federal government?

26 C.F.R Section 601.602 says: The tax system is based on voluntary compliance - So I have sent in my 'Revocation of Election to Pay Taxes'. I ask, what part of 'voluntary' do you not understand?

26 U.S.C. section 7851 (a)(6)(A) says: There is no authority for the IRS to use any 'enforcement' actions, against an American National / non "U.S. citizen" (meaning D.C. citizen) like me (with no government sources of excise taxable income connected to a "trade or business" and acting in the capacity of a "public officer").

Until Title 26 becomes "ENACTED" - meaning – passed into "positive" law and then made applicable to the living people domiciled in the 50 states of the union (will never happen), nothing in Title 26 applies to the living men and women in the states of the union – not involved in excise taxable activities. If Title 26 has never been "enacted" into 'positive' law, then how is it possible for the IRS's letter to apply to we, a living man and woman, living under our Creator's laws protected by the de jure Constitutional (1787) law of the "land" jurisdiction in a non-domestic (not within D.C.) state of the union and with a mailing location not within the "United States" (defined in tax law as D.C.) and their Admiralty law of the "sea" jurisdiction?

Michael L White, a Federal Attorney, wrote in a letter that said: There are no enforcement regulations in the Federal Register – nor a requirement to pay income taxes. Your office and the IRS are required by law to have a knowledgeable IRS officer provide me with the IRC regulation in Title 26 or in any other U.S.C. Title that makes us "subject to" and "liable for" for anything.

26 U.S.C. section 7806(b) says and I paraphrase: There is no inference that any regulation in Title 26 has any force and effect in law. Doesn't this code section sound 'Frivolous' to you?

26 U.S.C. section 7408(d) says the IRS's taxing jurisdiction is limited to the ten square mile area commonly known as the District of Columbia. Does the IRS think I, a living man, is domiciled in D.C. or in any one of its possessions or territories, or within one of its "federal zones" within the state where I live?

4 U.S.C. section 72 says the IRS tax code is not allowed to leave the ten square mile land area of the District of Columbia. Does the IRS office that sent the the letter with no basis of law, is making a claims - think I am domiciled or living in the District of Columbia? I have never lived nor knowingly been domiciled in D.C. and I have never knowingly been a "public officer" involved in a "trade or business" domiciled in D.C.

Does the IRS officer, making these claims, have a license to practice tax law? Is your office making a "legal" determination, without lawful discovery, as to what I am "liable" for?

1 U.S.C. section 204 says Title 26 is not “positive law” (never enacted beyond one day in August 1954) and therefore, is only “prima facie” and “color of law” evidence (evidence is not proof), but a mere statutory “presumption” [by the IRS]. The IRS cannot impair my constitutionally protected – God given unalienable rights [to not volunteer to make donations to the Treasury]. [emphasis added]. Does your office think Title 26 has been “enacted” into positive law and therefore, somehow applies to me, the living man?

IRC code section 7206 – Fraud and False statements. Any [IRS] person who willfully aids or assists in making a “claim” [for amounts due] which is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, shall be guilty of a felony – fined not more than $100,000 and imprisoned not more than 3 years, or both, together with cost of prosecution.

If you believe this is notice to the Employer to withhold tax is accurate and backed up by law. Please give this legal Notice to the highest ranking manager in your office or to this office’s legal department, due to the contractual content and its legal importance. If you are not licensed to practice law, you must forward this reply to someone who is and then have them rebut all codes referenced above, point for point in an affidavit and have them sign in wet ink under penalty of perjury.

RE: Revocation of Election to Pay Taxes

Dear Commissioner Michael Faulkender,

This letter is to inform you and to state that I revoke my election to pay federal income taxes as of January 1st 2015. I made the mistake that I needed to do so. Having determined that I was never actually a volunteer Warrant Officer in the Merchant Marine Service and clearing the confusion about what a Withholding Agent was and now knowing that I am not a Withholding Agent and never have been when I had signed previous 1040 and other federal tax forms, I now revoke my election to pay any federal income taxes from the above date and going forward.
